AUSTIN HERR.

The Philadelphia papers say:

"There was close competition between Geo. V. Hecker (of N. Y.), Burrows Frye & Co., F. Schumacker and several other exhibitors for premiums of $25 and $15, etc., etc."

The Fair Daily, says:

"Austin Herr, proprietor of the Pioneer and Columbia Flour Mills, Georgetown, D. C., is certainly to be congratulated. At the Centennial exhibition, 1876, these mills secured the highest award for the grades known as "The Great Swiss Process," and Cook's Delight, and now, after adopting the revolutionary improvements in milling processes, (the full roller system) he again visits us and well nigh takes all the state Fair Society's awards, etc."

Col. Wilson, commissioner of public buildings and grounds, has submitted to the chief engineer a report of operations during the month of September. The work of improving the WILL NOT ALLOW FOR COOLING DRINKS AND grounds south of the executive mansion was surfaced, and the ground kept free from weeds.
Two new walks were finished and the grade of ground around the President's stable raised, and the old sewer carrying off surface drainage which was completely closed, was connected with the main sewer running through the surfaced, and the ground kept free from weeds. grounds. The brick and woodwork of the new greenhouse on the monument grounds was completed. Two thousand seven hundred and orty-six bulbs were planted for winter bloom-The propagation of different varieties of ing plants for next season was commenced September 9th. One thousand three hundred and sixty-eight carnations and 300 All the tropical plants placed in Lafayette and Franklin parks last spring were removed and placed in the greenhouses. A large gang of workmen was employed during the month in Smithsonian park and the reservation east of the botanical gardens. A great deal of cobble stone and brick guttering, and ten brick sewer traps and 1,061 feet of terra cotta drain pipe was laid in the Smithsonian grounds. The ground east of the museum having in part been set aside for the new army museum, a large amount of gravel and soil was removed and used in raising roads in the grounds which were too low. Attention is called to the erection by the museum authorities of some frame buildings without authority of law upon ground under charge of the cor missioner of public buildings and grounds, and a portion of this ground is used for storage, and the museum employes have at times built fires under some of the trees, injuring them seriously. Armory park was gravelled, raked, and rolled, lawns mowed and trees and shrubs lawns mowed and trees and shrubs cared for, cobble stone gutters and terra cotta draid pipes laid. The reservation east of 6th street (Seaton park) was improved and cared for. The two triangles on Pennsylvania avenue at the corners of 9th and 10th streets east, the improvement of which was commenced in August, were seeded and rolled and water was introduced. The work of laying out paths in the reservation at the junction of South Carolina avenue and 6th street southeast was commenced, and also in Garfield square. The newly mproved triangle at the corner of 5th street a post and chain fence, and a similar fence is to be placed around the triangle at the junction of New Jersey avenue and 2d street. The posts and chain for these fences were taken from the grounds of the new army museum, those in the rear of the army building and those in front of the new Pension building. The other reservations were cared for and improved. Minor re pairs were made in the White House, and the conservatory and greenhouses were cleaned and repaired and the grounds about the building kept in good condition. SERIOUS RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.-This morning about half-past ten o'clock, near the corner of 5th and G streets northwest, a pair of norses attached to a lumber wagon belonging o Mr. Thomas Riley and driven by James Garland, colored, ran away. Garland jumped from the wagon to stop the team, and was run over. breaking his right leg near the ankle. One of the horses also had its legs broken, and was afterwards shot. Garland was removed to his home, No. 710 3d street southwest, where urgical aid was rendered.

MR. PUMPHREY'S GAME COCK .- Detective Edelin walked into the Police Court this morning carrying across his shoulder a bag in which was a game rooster which had been stolen from Mr. J. W. Pumphrey. A colored man had been arrested, but as he had bought the rooster in market the case of larceny against him was dismissed and the rooster was returned to Mr.

Systematic Mail Robbery. THIEF ACTING POSTMASTER AT RENOVO

PENN. A telegram to the New York Times from Renovo, Penn., October 11, says: Further developments in the shortage at the post office here are of a startling character. Recently Post Office Inspector Speere, of Pittsburg, discovered a deficit of $2,000 in the accounts of Decatur Wells, the postmaster's son, who has had charge of the office for the past few years, relieving his infirm old father of the duties. It has now leaked out that young Wells was obliged to make up $2,500 of a previous shortage in May, which was paid over to the inspector by a brother-in law. The subsequent discovery of the $2,000 shortage has led to other discoveries, which indicate a deliberate system of swindling, rascality, and Young Wells has lavished his money recklessly on gambling, fast horses and women. His manner of appropriating moneys intrusted to the care of the mails at Renovo was both Mrs. Josephine C. Logan, well-known as a teacher of vocal music, died at her late residence, No. 1212 L street, this morning. Mrs. Logan was born in Willimantic, Conn., and early displayed such pronounced musical talent that she was sent to Italy, where she studied for severnly years under the renowned Lainperti. She developed a contraito voice of great purity, power, and compass, and her debut at La Scala in Milan was a pronounced success. She immediately secured an engagement, and sang in opera for a number of years in Europe. Returning to this country, she was the leading contraito in companies organized by Strakokch, Grau, and Maretzek, and was highly successful in Mexico and South America. A long fit of illness resulted in her withdrawal from the operatic stage, and she then devoted herelf to teaching. Since her residence in Washington she has included among her pupils the daughters of some of our best citizens, and has also furnished for English opera several ladies who now enjoy good reputations. Her death is a positive loss to the musical community of this city. A meeting of her friends and former pupils will be held this evening at the office of Mr. E. B. Hay, 1425 New York avenue, at 7 o'clock.

MAIL DEPARTURES FROM THE F STREET STATION.—Nine collections of mail have been arranged for each day from station C, F street, between 14th and 15th. The hours fixed for the departure of mails from that station are as follows: 8455 a.m., 9:15 a.m., 10:25 a.m., 12:25 bold and shrewd. His victims are all foreign been postmaster for 20 years.

This affair has aroused the indignation of everybody in this part of the state, and the prompt removal of young Wells is demanded. Inspector Speere is examining the books, and the other departments are in chaos.

MORE STRIKE DISORDERS IN ST. LOUIS.—Between 9 and 10 o'clock Saturday night a crowd of about 200 strikers and their friends derailed and upset two cars of the Missouri Railroad company near the corner of Market and High streets, St. Louis. The police were soon on the spot, and Mayor Francis was also present. The mob was speedly dispersed. Fears were telt early in the evening that trouble would occur on this foad, and the line was well covered by police, but this crowd dodged in and did their work before the police could prevent it. All the cars were withdrawn from the road, and also from the Olive street line, and the only road running cars Saturday night was the Franklin avenue line.

The Campaign in Ohio Practically Closed-The Democrats Again Relying on the Prohibitionists to Save Them-Probable Democratic Losses in Hamilton and Franklin. Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, October 12.—The campaign work, so far as the state committees are concerned, is at an end. The candidates are hustling about the state with surprising nimbleness, and the time for fine work has arrived. During the last day or two the democrats have been very confident over the probable poll of the prohibition vote in some of the strong republican counties. It is now claimed that Dr. Leonard will poll not less than 1,200 votes in Clark county, ex-Speaker Keifer's home. Should this estimate hold good, and the estimates made by the prohibition managers in other sections of the state be verified, the election of Hoadly would follow. On the other hand, the republicans claim that the prohibition vote has been greatly overestimated. The result to-morrow undoubtedly hinges on the result in Hamilton, is fully satisfied with the outlook. The Cincir nati Germans are very non-committal, and it is judged by the republicans that this is calculated o be in their favor. A year ago the democrats ed the Germans "for going back on them," and it is said the Germans reme the scoring they received. The fact that the republican legislative ticket in Hamilton republican legislative ticket in namition county is largely composed of Germans is regarded as sufficient reason to predict that the republicans will be able to nearly hold their own, but it is hardly probable that they will be able to elect their full legislative ticket. Early in the campaign there was considerable ukewarmness on the Western Reserve, but Senator Sherman has succeeded in awakening the republicans in that stronghold, and should fair weather prevail, a very full vote is looked for, which would, of course, be of great advantage to the republicans. The uncertainty that exists in regard to the strength of the third party stands in the way of forming a correct party stands in the way of forming a correct opinion of the result. It may be said, however, that the best informed democrats rely upon the prohibitionists polling 25,000 to carry Hoadly through. To-day it is not believed that Leonard will poll to exceed 15,000. SOME FIGURES FROM OHIO. The Vote Cast in Each Senatorial District Last Fall-Claims of Both Parties Regarding the Legislature.

Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR. COLUMBUS, ORIO, October 12. The following is the vote by districts cast last October for secretary of state and shows the number of Senators each district has. The democrats claim the election of their senatorial candidates in the following districts with a remarkable degree of certainty: 2d, 1; 3d, 1; 4th, 1; 9th, 1; 10th, 1; 12th, 1; 15th and 16th, 2; 17th and 28th, 1; 18th and 19th, 2; 30th, 1; 31st, 1; 32d, 2; 33d, 2. Total, 17. The democratic chairman claims the 6th district, which gave a republican majority of 75 in October last as doubtful, but believe they can carry it. Conceding this claim, the democrats will have 18 members in the senate. The re-publicans, however, are equally confident, as in the case of the 1st (Cincinnati) and 25th (Cleveland) districts. The republicans claim they will elect mer bers in the following districts: 1st, 4; 5th, 1; 6th, 1; 7th, 1; 8th, 1; 11th, 1; 13th, 1; 14th, 1: 20th, 1; 21st, 1; 22d, 1; 23d, 1; 24th and 26th, 2; 25th, 2; 27th and 29th, 1. Total, 20.

In the house the democrats claim the election of 46 members sure and 9 as doubtful, which conceding all their claims, would give them 55 members, or just one-half of the house delegation. Of those regarded as sure 3 are claimed in Cincinnati, 3 in Columbus, 1 in Cleveland, and 2 in Lucus. THREATENING KING THEBAW. A Scheme Believed to be on Foot in England Looking to the Annexation of Upper Burmah.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR. London, October 12.-The sensational anouncement that the government has determned on the annexation of Upper Burmah is the tory organs and speakers have been given hints. Two articles in the National Review suggested it. On Saturday night Archibald Colquhome, who has been the Times' special correspondent all over the east, writing to the Times directly urged the absolute annexation of Upper Burmah. He says the English would be welomed; that the native army is contemptible comed; that the native army is contemptible; that King Thebaw is intriguing with the French along the Irrawaddy valley, which is the only route for a railway from India to China through Siam; that Burmah is a very rich country. The Burmese ambassador to Paris denies indignantly the rumors of intrigues with the French. He asserts that the Burmese are both able and determined to resist annexation by anybody. The ultra radicals will protest strongly. Nobody of authority has yet mentioned the subject, but Thebaw's abominations have long excited disgust and he is probably near the end of his tether.

The Greek Minister's Significant Special Cable Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR.

LONDON, October 12—The speech of the Greek minister, Triconyries, on Saturday is causing some alarm. He said if Greece had followed in 1821 the advice similar to that which the powers are pressing upon her now, there would be no Hellenic kingdom to-day. The inference is obvious. Triconyrics will have an interview with Lord Salisbury this afternoon, so that his next utterance will be more important.

Duel With Knives in a Cotton Field. LITTLE ROCK, ARK., October 12.—Particulars of a horrible duel with knives in Clark county, have just been received here. It appears that Chas. Wright and Jasper Owens, two young men, got into a quarrel while at work in a cotton field. Each drew a knife, and, advancing towards each other, a terrific fight commenced. Both were cut severely. The fight terminated in Wright plunging his knife to the hilt in the side of his antagonist. He fell mortally wounded. Wright gave himself up, claiming that he acted in self defense. He is highly connected.

Bewitched by Her Aunt. ECITEMENT AMONG SUPERSTITIOUS SWEDE IN MINNESOTA.

ST. PETER, MINN., October 12.—There is considerable excitement in Belgrade, this county, in a settlement of Swedes, over a case of what they believe is witchcraft. A woman has been sick for three years and accuses her aunt of being a witch and causing her sickness. The Swedish church has held a trial and witnesses solemnly testify to a belief in witches, and stated that they had seen it in this particular case. The statement was made by one woman that she was posted in witchcraft, and had seen witches send the spell off through the air, and seen it strike persons who were soon after taken sick. What will be done with the alleged witch has not been determined.

BELGRADE, October 12.—The war fever runs high throughout Servia, and active preparations are going on to enforce Servia's demand for an extension of territory. English, French, and Austrian firms have been tendered contracts by the government to supply complete outfits for 25,000 troops, and all the contracts have been alloted; also one for 35,000 horses. The Lander bank war loan has been raised to

$5,000,000. * GLADSTONE'S POSITION. BRUSSELS, October 12 .- Mr. Gladstone has written to M. Emile Louis Victor Laveleye, the well-known writer on political economy, as follows: "I favor the Bulgarian union, but trust its territory will not exceed its present limit, because I fear disastrous competitions be tween the great powers themselves, and also the Hellenic and Sciavonic races for an extension of territory. I express myself on the question with reserve, because my mind is perplexed by the many difficulties surround ing it. I see that Bulgarian union, excellent in itself, may produce immeasurable evils. LORD RANDOLPH'S ADDRESS.

He Appeals to His Constituents in His Usual Impulsive Manner.

LONDON, October 12. - Lord Randolph

Churchill has issued an address to his constituents. It is in the same impulsive style that characterizes his speeches. He says the liberals tors by any record of foreign or home achievement, and content themselves with an incomplete, misleading extenuation, and acknowledge their failure. They seek to attract votes by promises of bribes, which a bitter experience has shown they have neither the capacity nor the strength to fulfil. He refers to the adverse vote against the Gladstone government wrung from the commons on the budget. He continues: "Mr. Bright will direc his unrivaled oratory, his simple, forcible invective, his personal position and experience to induce you to reinstate the liberals. The old dissension among the liberals which caused the failures of the past five years is now blazing flercely. Mr. Gladstone, in all honesty, warns you that his controlling hand will be stretched forth only a little while. You will be asked to support a party which even hatred of the tories cannot unite. You cannot yield to this appeal. The policy of the tories is to regain the friendship of the powers which prejudice, presumption and poltrooner have almost forfeited, and to use that friend ship to secure European peace; imperial fede-ration for defensive and commercial purposes of England and her colonies; to conciliate by equal laws and just and firm administration the Irish brethren now irritated and estrange so that the union which nature as well as policy effected may eternally endure; to place the security of the Indian beyond the influence of panic or anxiety; to give the rural farming population self government, which has already benefited the great towns. The tories will oppose the dismemberment of the empire under the guise of national council; the abolition of the house of lords; the disestablishme of the church; the use of its endowments for purposes of secular education: the wholesale plunder of all who acquired property by inheritence or thrift under the guise of ransom, and graduated taxation—all mean social ruin, and must be confided to Mr. Chamberlain, if the people restore the liberals to power. The tories will patiently accept the judgment of the peo-ple, but history will mourn and wonder at the ple, but history will mourn and wonder at the blindness and insanity of a people who deliberately fling away a priceless heritage, thereby consigning to the grave a great and glorius em Lord Randolph Churchill, in his address to the electors of Birmingham, said that the tories would strive, as far as political economy would admit, to multiply the number of freehold and occupiers of land througout the united kingdom, to utilize the powers of parliament in the direction of thrifty spending of the people money, and to reform parliamentary proceedure and regulate the hours of meeting of parlia ment, so as to remedy night sittings. In a wor the tories would govern the empire in the light The Times says: "Lord Randolph Churchill's address is an ingenious appeal and strikes with unerring instinct at the weak point of the liberal cause, namely, past failures and dissensions in the party."

SHOCKING TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

An Insult to a Girl which Cost the PITTSBURG, PA., October 12.—News has reached here of a triple tragedyin an unfrequented portion of Franklin township. Saturday nightValentine Pffefer, a youngGerman farmer. and a man named McDonald went to the cabin of Zacharias Wright, occupied by Wright and his wife, daughter and two sons. The two began beating on the door and calling Mrs. Wright and her daughter vile names. Falling to break down the door, McDonald went to the rear of the house and attempted to enter through a window. When half way he was caught and stabbed in the neck by one of the Wright brothers, the cut reaching from the right ear to the jugular vein. This was followed by a second stab in the breast, when McDonald fell back lifeless. When Pffefer saw the bloody body of his comrade, he drew his revolver and began firing into the house. The second shot struck Adam Wright in the breast, and the third in the face. The fourth shot struck his brother Solomon, who had sprung to catch Adam, in the left breast. Pfetter then disappeared, and has not been seen since. The remainder of the Wright family quickly superposed description. Wright family quickly summoned doctors, who pronounced both the brothers' injuries fatal. The tragedy grew out of a quarrel at a former meeting, when Pfeffer had been roughly handled by the Wright boys after insulting their

HE BRINGS A CIVIL SUIT AGAINST A. L. ERLAN-GER AND IS HIMSELF SUED. Philadelphia Times, October 11th. Actor George H. Leonard, who was shot last Tuesday evening by Theatrical Manager Abraham L. Erlanger in his wife's room at the Continental hotel, yesterday brought suit against tinental hotel, yesterday brought suit against his assailant to recover damages for the assail. In an affidavit in support of the action he avers that he married his wite, Louise Baife Leonard, in Lancashire, England, about six years ago and that they lived happily together until May last, when she became acquainted with Erlanger. The acquaintance had not lasted long, when Leonard wrote a note to Erianger requesting him to discontinue his visits to his wife. He avers that when he entered his wife's room at the hotel last Tuesday it was for the purpose of making arrangements with her in regard to the care of their child, and that immediately upon his entrance, and without a word being spoken by any one and without the slightest provocation. Erianger rose from his
